

Use chips to find the numbers that go into each of the three shapes.
The three equations between the shapes must be true.

